The winner of the AIC's Cliff Shaw-Scholar Athlete Award for 1975 is Oliver Gatchell III, of Hendrix College.

Better known as "Chip", Gatchell majored in Philosophy and graduated this spring with a grade point average of 3.69. Placing 20th out of a class of 234, he was in the top ten per cent of his class. He plans to do graduate work this fall in Europe. He is from Little Rock and graduated from Hall High School in 1971.

Gatchell lettered four years in swimming at Hendrix. He was a member of Hendrix' record breaking 400 yard freestyle relay teams in 1972 and 1975.

Named for the AIC's Commissioner Emeritus Cliff Shaw, the scholarship award goes each year to the Conference's graduating senior who compiles the highest grade point average and who has earned at least two varsity letters.

Runnerup for this year's award is William Eugene Fowler of Harding College who earned four letters in golf and graduated cum laude on May 11 with a grade point of 3.574. Fowler is from Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Other nominees for the award this year were Arkansas College's William Adair who is from Pine Bluff; the University of Central Arkansas' Danny Lyons who is from Waldron; Southern State's John Harris who is from Mayfield, La.; and UA Monticello's Steve Hamblin who is from the city of Monticello.
